

Message of the Month:

Respect based on Character

Do not impressed by a person's wealth, social status or job title. Be impressed by a person's character - the way a person treats other human beings. Treating others with honor and dignity despite any differences you might have with them is the Black Belt way.

October 2018